

poetry*moves*

POETRY MOVES SEASON 7: CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 1, 2018

Arts of Clark County is proud to announce the submission period for Poetry Moves season 7, to be showcased on C-Tran Buses beginning January 2019.

Submission guidelines:

- Poems should not exceed seven (7) lines and be your own original work
- Submit a maximum of two (2) poems
- Only one poem per poet will be selected and a total of ten poems will be chosen for the January 2019 Poetry Moves program
- Submissions will be accepted via email only
- If your poem is accepted, the editors may have suggestions for edits or format changes to ensure the work meets the proper requirements
- Poems will be accepted until November 1, 2018 at 11:59pm, Pacific Standard Time

To submit:

- We will accept submissions via email only. Please submit your work to submitpoetry@artsofclarkcounty.org
- Type: "Poetry Moves Season 7 Submission" in the subject line of the email
- Please submit poems in a standard readable font such as Times New Roman or Arial in 12 pt
- For those of you submitting two poems, attach each poem in a separate word document
- At the top of each submission document include your name, phone number, email, and title of poem (if applicable)
- Each submission document should be titled with the last name of the poet with the title of the poem (Ex: Miller_Moonpoem)
- in the body of the email, include contact information (first and last name), phone number, email address, and title of poem(s)
- If you have questions, please contact Morgan Hutchinson at submitpoetry@artsofclarkcounty.org

We look forward to reading your work!

Poetry Moves is a program of Arts of Clark County in collaboration with C-TRAN, providing poetry on bus channel cards in all C-TRAN buses. Installed on buses every six months are ten new poems by local poets or students involved in the Poets in the Schools program. All buses in the C-TRAN fleet display two different poem cards.

